

PROFESSIONAL PANEL BUSINESS HOUR

TUESDAY, APR 6, 2021 | 12:00 PM – 12:40 PM PT

REGISTER: <https://bit.ly/2N6hgq6>

The Cancer Legal Resource Center (CLRC) is pleased to present a business hour for current and prospective Professional Panel attorneys providing legal assistance to cancer-affected individuals.

Join Co-Directors Shelly Rosenfeld, Esq., and Dayana Pelayo, Esq., to hear from distinguished guest speaker and CLRC founder Barbara Schwerin, Esq., discover opportunities through CLRC's Professional Panel, and network with other legal professionals.

About CLRC's Professional Panel:

The Cancer Legal Resource Center (CLRC), a program of the Disability Rights Legal Center, is the only national dedicated center for patients, survivors, caregivers, and health care professionals to access confidential cancer-related legal information and resources at no cost. CLRC maintains a Professional Panel of qualified attorneys who can be matched with callers needing legal counsel. CLRC is seeking attorneys barred in any state with experience in a wide range of legal issue areas to join its Professional Panel and to help people navigate their cancer-related legal concerns. Learn more at <https://thedrlc.org/cancer/about/clrc-professional-panel>.

About Barbara Schwerin:

After working in private practice for 10 years, Barbara Schwerin, Esq., became Founding Director of the CLRC in 1997. She became Deputy Director of Community Programs at the DRLC in 2005 and CEO for The Maple Counseling Center in Beverly Hills, CA, in 2007. She was appointed Director of Development at Loyola Law School in 2008 and served as Adjunct Professor of Law and Executive Director of the Advocacy Institute from 2010 until she retired in 2017. She serves on the CLRC Advisory Committee.

