

Cindy Morgan is Vice President of Labor and Employment Law at Viacom Media Networks. Viacom Media Networks consists of a variety of cable channels and digital properties including MTV, VH1, Comedy Central, Nickelodeon, Spike and TV Land. As Vice President, Ms. Morgan advises on federal and state employment laws, including the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title VII, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, and other state and federal statutes. She also manages all employment litigation on the West Coast and drafts and negotiates executive contracts and separation agreements.

Prior to joining Viacom Media Networks, Ms. Morgan was an associate in the Los Angeles office of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP. As a member of the firm's Employment Law Department, she focused on the representation of employers in all aspects of labor and employment law, including employment discrimination, disability law, wage and hour class actions, wrongful discharge, retaliation and compliance matters.

She received her B.A. in English Literature, cum laude, from Loyola Marymount University, where she was a Trustee Scholar and the president of Alpha Sigma Nu Honor Society. Ms. Morgan also graduated from the honors college and served on the Alumni Board of Directors from 2009-2015. Ms. Morgan received her J.D. from the University of California at Los Angeles. In law school she served as editor in chief of the UCLA Journal of International Law and Foreign Affairs. Ms. Morgan also volunteered for El Centro's Homeless Project.

Ms. Morgan is a member of the State Bar of California and the Los Angeles County Bar Association. She is admitted to practice in all California courts, the United States District Courts in California, and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.