

Disability Rights Legal Center (DRLC) celebrated its 40th year in 2015 as the nation's oldest cross-disability rights advocacy organization. Our mission is to champion the rights of people with disabilities through education, advocacy, and litigation. Our long-established intake lines and community outreach efforts enable DRLC to bring high-impact cases in administrative, state, and federal court. These cases impact the lives and conditions for many similarly situated people.

Working at DRLC is more than just a job - it's a rare opportunity to make a difference in people's lives. DRLC is an environment with the resources and leadership to support legal staff with interesting and challenging cases. DRLC collaborates with private and non-profit organizations and firms across the country, providing a diverse and rich network for your legal career.

DRLC seeks a dynamic and motivated Managing Attorney with outstanding academic and professional credentials to join the Litigation Team.

Responsibilities:

- Reporting to the Executive Director or Director of Litigation, the Managing Attorney investigates and litigates impact civil rights cases on behalf of individuals with disabilities, including special education advocacy.
- Applicants for the Managing Attorney should have a minimum of seven years of experience as a practicing attorney, including litigation experience that prepares the applicant to handle disability rights impact litigation.
- Managing Attorney applicants are expected to possess experience sufficient to allow them to work with substantial independence in furtherance of DRLC's mission, require little direct supervision, and may have supervisory responsibility and other significant Legal Department responsibilities in addition to handling an individual docket of cases and investigations.
- Non-litigation advocacy is also required, including working with volunteers and law clerks, community outreach and training, coalition building, writing and publishing reports, planning and participating in public meetings, legislative research and lobbying, and media interviews.
- Candidates should have excellent written and oral communication skills, excellent project management skills, and a keen interest in DRLC's mission.

Requirements:

- Member of the California Bar or willingness to take the California Bar exam at the next opportunity.
- 7+ years litigation experience, including substantial experience as lead counsel.
- Experience supervising legal staff.
- Strong academic qualifications.

- Excellent writing, verbal and interpersonal skills.
- Strong organizational skills.
- Experience with disability rights issues and disability rights litigation strongly preferred.
- Demonstrated commitment to public interest law and civil rights law.
- Experience in complex, class action, appellate, and federal court practice.
- Experience supervising volunteers.
- Public speaking skill and experience.

Compensation:

This is a full time, exempt position. Compensation consists of salary commensurate with experience in the public interest sector, insurance benefits (health, liability, life, and disability), professional dues and memberships, vacation and sick leave.

Application:

Applications welcome immediately; position open until filled. Applications must include: (1) a cover letter that addresses your goals and your interest in this position; (2) resume; (3) writing sample; (4) names of three references; and (5) a list of major cases you have worked on and a description of your role. Submit electronic application to Jacqueline.Cortes@drlicenter.org with the words "Managing Attorney" in the subject line.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. No phone calls, please. Only those applicants who are selected for an interview will receive a response.
